INITIATION

The Number Codes for February

February 2015 is a One Universal Month which offers favorable energy for new starts and supports independence and leadership.

Our Eight Universal Year focuses on balance, strength, control, justice, money, leadership, harvest and manifesting.

February (the calendar month) is the Second Month of 2015. Two allies itself with cooperation and partnerships -- one of the reasons it's a perfect month for Valentine's Day.

February's (the word's) Soul Number is Nine, the number of Universal love and brotherhood – another reason Valentine's Day is well positioned as a permanent month to celebrate love.

February's (the word's) Letter Sum is Six the number of romantic love and beauty among other things, once more demonstrating that February is the perfect month for Valentine's Day.

How February adds up:

When we transit the Number One there is opportunity for a new beginning.

One is the start-up, the rocket blasting off from the launching pad, the newly planted seed sprouting a tendril that just barely pokes through the soil. Therefore, this month can be an opportune time for initiation depending on your own current patterns numerology chart. If you're not initiating something, it might simply be a good time to claim your own identity, take a stand about an issue or utilize your leadership skills.

Bear in mind that Mercury continues to be retrograde to February 11 with the shadow remaining throughout the month. Be cautious in your speech, as Mercury retrograde magnifies the odds of being misunderstood. You can even be perceived as being aggressive (the One influence!) when you were merely offering your opinion.

Globally, we may experience some public figures and governments asserting themselves vocally and otherwise as both the One of this month and the Eight of our year encourage the unenlightened to indulge in egocentric behavior and unfortunately even in outright attack mode. (One can also be a number of anger and attack.) By keeping our thoughts and actions positive and centered on peace this month (and always!) we can help shift the world to a peaceful planet even if we lack any immediate feedback or confirmation that our thoughts made any difference. Collectively, we can change the world!

If you are seeking a romantic partner, Valentine's Day is excellent for prayer and meditation to call in a special heart-mate.
