

NANCY'S MONTHLY FORECAST

Our Universal Number Transit for 2018 is the Master Number Eleven ( $2 + 0 + 1 + 8 = 11$ .) Thus we will all be confronted both collectively and individually with events that offer us growth, transformation, choices and change. Eleven is a number of gain and loss. In order to move forward, something must be left behind. Sometimes we get to choose what we take with us; other times the Universe makes the choices for us. Either way, we stand to gain in some way, although we may be prevented from seeing the advantages we have received if we are mourning a loss.

The Number Codes for February

The Number Code for February is the Number Thirteen. Although the Number Thirteen has a cultural reputation for representing death and/or bad luck, I consider it a very constructive number which I term the "life remodeling number." Composed of the numbers One and Three, its instruction is to "initiate creativity." As the Number Thirteen reduces to Four ( $1 + 3 = 4$ ), the base number which represents safety and security. Thus for this month we can interpret the message of Thirteen as one which instructs us to create a new secure foundation for our lives.

February (the calendar month) is the Second Month of 2018. Two allies itself with cooperation and partnerships, one of the reasons it's a perfect month for Valentine's Day.

February's (the word's) Soul Number is Nine, the number of Universal love and brotherhood – another reason Valentine's Day is well positioned as a permanent month to celebrate love.

February's (the word's) Letter Sum is Six the number of romantic love and beauty among other things, once more demonstrating that February is the perfect month for Valentine's Day.

How February Adds Up:

This can be an ideal month to lay the foundation for achieving your future goals.

What are your goals?

What needs to be done to accomplish them?

This is a year of partnership and teamwork. Who are the key people you choose to be in alliance with this year?

What other types of support do you require to make your goals reality?

The time from March through September is always the most productive time of a year. Make a "game plan" to take you up to September when the year's energy peaks.

Use meditation techniques to envision the outcomes you desire.

Your goal-setting and planning can apply to almost any area of your life – health, wealth, career, business, home and relationships.
