EXAMINE YOUR FOUNDATIONS IS YOUR LIFE SUPPORTING YOU?

May's Universal Month Number is Four, which we arrive at by adding the Eight from our Universal Year Number to Five, the number assigned to May as the fifth month of our calendar year. The sum is Thirteen which we further reduce to Four. Four is the number of financial resourcefulness, practicality and creating safe and secure foundations for our ongoing well being.

May (the calendar month) is the Fifth Month of 2015. Five as a number stands for freedom and change, seeking to explore new territory and unafraid to gamble and take risks. Five rules the senses, sexuality, birth and creation.

May's (the word's) Soul Number is One which prompts us to start over and/or begin a new cycle in our lives.

May's (the word's) Letter Sum is Eleven, the number of peace, relationships, and tests of soul mastery.

How May adds up:

As with last month, we have some disparate number energies to contend with. The Universal Year Number of Eight and the Universal Month Number of Four tell us to shore up our foundations, find ways to increase or preserve our financial security and our physical well being and stay put. May as the fifth month with a One Soul Number advises us to initiate changes.

We also have to take into consideration that Mercury is gearing up to go retrograde and officially begins that transit on May 18th. Most people (even if they are not astrologically aware in other ways) are cued in to avoid making major changes in career, home, relationships and finances during a Mercury Retrograde time period.

From my perspective, the best way to work this month's energies is to research ways that we might increase our financial and physical well being.

Career stability is also an issue to examine. What changes would you like to make in your life or lifestyle right now? What options are open to you to make changes?

A Mercury Retrograde time period always invites us to redo the things in our lives that are not working. So spending your time doing this can be well invested. May can be a time to clean out the "dead wood" in your life literally and figuratively so that going forward in June (when we have the Five Universal energy at play) we have streamlined our lives and removed the things that have been draining our energy and motivation.

Metaphysician and artist JANOSH (whose art is reproduced here by permission) terms the week beginning May 8 as the "in between time" when we are processing the recent energy shifts physically, emotionally, mentally and spiritually and thus needing to take a break from "doing" to integrate the changes into our individual vibrational blueprints. The Bottom Line This Month-

This May you may be well advised to:

Complete or say good-bye to any projects that you put on the shelf saying "Someday I'll finish these."

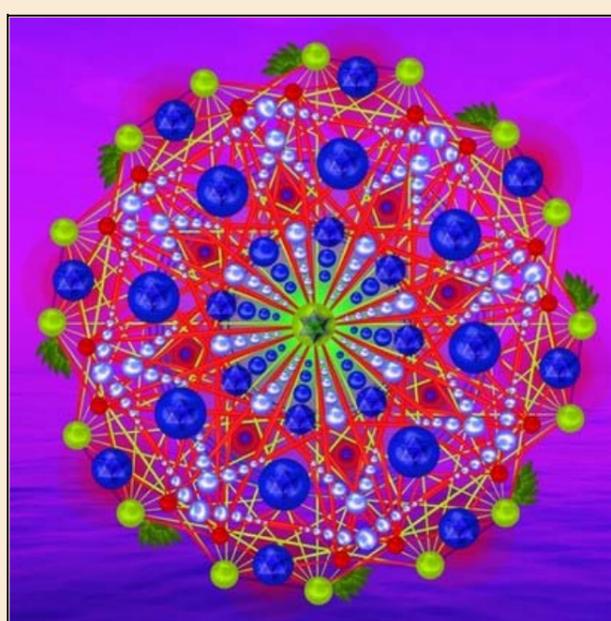

Clean out your closets, your garage, your home of all that is no longer utilized or valued. Also, your body falls into this category as well so it can be a time to evaluate your diet and level of fitness and determine what if any changes can benefit you. (You may want to wait until next month to start any new programs.)

Revise your budget and find a way to save money for the things that really matter.

Do your resume so you'll be ready to change jobs.

Do any other research for life changes that you choose to embark upon.

As we go further into the year, you'll be grateful that you are prepared for the new opportunities for change that lie ahead.
